

On motion by Councilman Rau and seconded by Councilman Crosby, the following action was discussed:

A TEMPORARY MORATORIUM PROHIBITING THE ISSUANCE OF PERMITS AND OR LICENSES FOR USED AUTOMOBILE SALES.

It is moved that a 180 day moratorium be established prohibiting the issuance of new permits and/or licenses for used automobile sales and that a study of the impact of new permits and/or licenses for used automobile sales be performed by the administration.

THEREFORE, PURSUANT TO ARTICLES 74-51 and 74-52 and by the City Council acting as legislative authority for the City of Gretna does hereby establish a 180 day moratorium prohibiting the issuance of new permits and/or licenses for used automobile sales and that a study of the impact of new permits and/or licenses for used automobile sales be performed by the administration.

Provided that a majority of the City Council has voted in favor of this moratorium, this moratorium shall have immediate full force and effect of law.

This moratorium having been submitted to a vote, the vote thereon was as follows:

Yeas: Councilmen Rau, Crosby, Marino, Miller and Berthelot
