Christmas in Gretna 2022

Weekend of December 17

Don't miss our final weekend of holiday activities!

Santa at the Market & Passport to Christmas Drawing

December 17, 10:30 AM

Gretna Market Place, Huey P. Long Avenue between 3rd & 4th Streets

Bring the little ones to visit with Santa Claus.

Santa will draw the winners of the Passport to Christmas promotion.

Grand prize winner to receive a gift basket valued over $1,000.

The Living Nativity presented by St. Joseph Church

December 18, 6:00 PM

In front of the Christmas tree on Huey P. Long Avenue median at 6th Street

Nativity characters and real animals will proceed along the neutral ground to the stable site, accompanied by narration and music, in this beautiful, live depiction of the Christmas story.

The animals will be available for petting after the procession.

Free to the public. Bring your own chairs.

Complimentary hot chocolate will be served.

Light up the Huey

Holiday Lights Display on Huey P. Long Avenue

The oaks are lit along the Huey P. Long median from 10th Street to the river.

Enjoy the festive display throughout December.
